

A Geneva Lake Libraries Program

ANCIENT TALES: THE ARCHAEOLOGY OF SOUTHEASTERN WISCONSIN

DR. AMY ROSEBROUGH

State Archaeologist
for Wisconsin

FREE &
OPEN TO ALL!

Join us for a special presentation covering 14,000 years of history, from the retreat of the glaciers up to European contact.

Dr. Amy Rosebrough has extensive experience in the Wisconsin and midwestern United States archaeology scene, and her work spans the public, private, and educational sectors of archaeology, including her involvement with the Wisconsin Archeological Society and Archaeological Research, Inc. Rosebrough is regarded as one of the top experts on Wisconsin's effigy mounds.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2025
6:30 PM

LODGE GENEVA NATIONAL
W4240 WI-50, Lake Geneva, WI 53147