

HELPING THE BUGS: HOW TO PROVIDE RESOURCES FOR NATIVE INSECTS

Wisconsin is home to thousands of native insects which play important roles in the ecosystem. At the same time, concerns about global insect declines are growing. In this talk, we'll examine the challenges insects are facing and discuss ways to help native insects in our own yards and neighborhoods.

DATE: TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 2026
TIME: 6:30 PM
LOCATION: LODGE GENEVA NATIONAL,
W4240 WI-50, LAKE GENEVA

SPEAKER:
PATRICK (PJ) LIESCH
THE WISCONSIN BUG GUY
EXTENSION ENTOMOLOGIST;

DIRECTOR OF THE UW-MADISON INSECT
DIAGNOSTIC LAB

This program was made possible by:

